

8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.

Drama

Sara Beth Bell

A passionate youth director, she leads a group of dedicated youth in profoundly moving dramas that will touch your heart and soul.

Keynote Speaker

Vicki London grew up in a truly dysfunctional family with an alcoholic father and a tormented mother. Despite her home life at the age of 9, during Bible school, she gave her life to Jesus. Though her family did not attend church, the desire in her heart to have a personal relationship with her Christ, persuaded her to study her bible with passion.

At age 22, Vicki was miserable in a life filled with a deep void for something more. At the height of despair one evening in her living room, kneeling beside of her sofa, Vicki opened her heart and called to Jesus "Dear Jesus, fill me, wash me and use me show me Your ways and all that You have for me."

Since that very night, the Holy Spirit has continued to fill Vicki in a most insightful way to His power and His glory. Jesus continues to use her in a way that touches the very heart of women everywhere by true anointing from the Holy Spirit. She has been blessed with a pure, God-given ability to teach the Word, share the victory and lead women of all ages to freedom and great peace in the Father above. Her uncanny ability to relate to real issues that women face is like a breath of fresh air directly from the Holy Spirit.